Report on Film Club (Best Practice)

Particulars	Details
Title of the Practice	Establishment of Film Club
Department	Department of Sociology
Date of Initiation	March 2024
Objective	To enhance students' understanding of sociological concepts through films and develop critical thinking, discussion, and analytical skills.
Need of the Practice	Traditional teaching methods sometimes limit practical understanding; films provide real-life context to sociological theories and issues.
Description of the Practice	A Film Club was established where students regularly watch selected films and documentaries related to social issues followed by group discussions and analysis.
Implementation Process	Formation of student committee, selection of films, scheduling screenings, arrangement of audio-visual facilities, and conducting discussions after screenings.
Activities Conducted	Screening of films and documentaries, post-film discussions, thematic screenings on gender, caste, migration, rural development, and social justice.
Student Participation	Active involvement of students in screenings, discussions, and presentations; improved communication and teamwork.
Outcomes / Impact	Better understanding of sociological concepts, improved critical thinking, increased student engagement, and confidence in expressing views.
Challenges	Time constraints, occasional technical issues, and maintaining regular participation.
Conclusion	The Film Club is an innovative and effective best practice that enriches learning and promotes holistic development of students.
Suggestions	Organize inter-departmental screenings, invite experts, conduct competitions, and maintain proper documentation.
