Report on 'Movie Screening of Queen' (Experiential Learning) Program

Date: 04/03/2024

Introduction

On March 4, 2023, the Department of Sociology organized a movie screening of the critically acclaimed film "Queen" as part of its Experiential Learning Program. The event aimed to provide students with an engaging and thought-provoking learning experience outside the traditional classroom setting. The screening was followed by a discussion session, allowing students to explore and analyze the sociological themes presented in the film.

Objectives

The primary objectives of the program were to:

- Enhance students' understanding of sociological concepts through visual media.
- Encourage critical thinking and discussion on gender roles, individual freedom, and cultural norms.
- Provide a platform for students to relate theoretical knowledge to real-life scenarios depicted in the film.

Summary of the Film "Queen"

"Queen" is a 2013 Bollywood film that tells the story of Rani Mehra, a young woman from Delhi who embarks on a solo honeymoon trip to Europe after her wedding is called off. The film explores themes of self-discovery, independence, and cultural contrasts, making it an excellent case study for sociological analysis.

Key Discussion Points

The discussion session highlighted several sociological themes:

- Gender Roles and Empowerment: Students discussed how Rani's journey challenges traditional gender roles and showcases her transformation into an empowered individual.
- Cultural Identity and Globalization: The film's portrayal of Rani's interactions with people from different cultures provided a basis for examining cultural identity and the impacts of globalization.
- Individual Freedom and Self-Discovery: Rani's experiences in Europe were analyzed in terms of personal freedom and the quest for self-discovery.

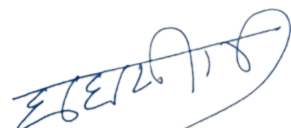

Conclusion

The movie screening of "Queen" as part of the Experiential Learning Program was a resounding success. It not only enhanced students' understanding of sociological theories especially Gender Role Crisis but also encouraged them to think critically about real-world issues. The Department of Sociology plans to organise similar events in the future to continue enriching the educational experience of its students.
