Poster Presentation on Youth Issues in Society

Date: 24 January 2025

1. Introduction

On January 24, 2025, the Department of Sociology at Padmabhushan Vasantrodada Patil Mahavidyalaya, Kavathe Mahankal, successfully organized a poster presentation focused on "Youth Issues in Society." The event provided a platform for students to delve into and visually articulate various challenges confronting today's youth. The presentation aimed to raise awareness, foster critical thinking, and encourage a deeper understanding of these complex issues within the academic community.

2. Objectives

The primary objectives of the event were to:

Enhance analytical skills: Encourage students to research, analyze, and synthesize information on key youth issues.

Improve presentation abilities: Provide an opportunity for students to visually and verbally present their findings effectively.

Promote awareness: Educate the student body and faculty on the pressing challenges faced by young people.

Foster collaboration: Encourage teamwork and peer learning among participants.

3. Participation

The event saw enthusiastic participation from students across different semesters of the Sociology program. A total of 15 posters were displayed, each addressing a unique theme. Participants worked individually or in groups of two or three to prepare their presentations.

4. Key Themes & Issues

The posters covered a wide range of relevant topics, highlighting the multifaceted nature of youth challenges. Some of the prominent themes included:

Mental health: Stress, anxiety, and depression among students.

Unemployment: The gap between educational qualifications and job market demands.

Substance abuse: The rise of drug and alcohol addiction.

Gender inequality and discrimination: Challenges faced by young people based on gender.

Educational disparities: Unequal access to quality education in rural vs. urban areas.

Digital Wellbeing.

5. Outcome & Impact

The event was highly successful. The posters were not only informative but also creatively designed, effectively conveying complex data and ideas. Participants demonstrated a strong grasp of their chosen topics, engaging in insightful discussions with faculty members and fellow students. The presentation sparked meaningful conversations and encouraged a more empathetic and informed perspective on youth issues. The event also highlighted the importance of interdisciplinary approaches to solving societal problems.

6. Conclusion

The Poster Presentation on Youth Issues in Society was a significant academic and social event. It achieved its objectives by successfully blending theoretical knowledge with practical application, empowering students to become agents of change. The Department of Sociology extends its gratitude to all participants, faculty, and the college administration for their support in making this event a grand success.
