Background	Institutional orientation programs play a crucial role in ensuring that students have a smooth transition into their new academic environment. These programs not only provide an opportunity for students to get acquainted with the institution but also familiarize them with the various committees and support systems in place.
Objective	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• To provide students with firsthand exposure to various agricultural practices, techniques, and technologies.</li><li>• To help students understand the diversity of agriculture, including crop cultivation, livestock management, horticulture, and agribusiness</li><li>• To raise awareness about sustainable and environmentally friendly farming practices and their importance in modern agriculture.</li><li>• To inspire students by showcasing successful agricultural stories and entrepreneurs, motivating them to consider careers in agriculture or related fields</li></ul>
Conclusion	The study trip included 44 students and 4 faculty members visiting the Krishi Pradrashan, Tasgaon. It is not just a one-time event but an opportunity for participants to continue learning and making a positive impact in the field of agriculture. The study trip of Krishi Pradrashan serves as a bridge between the trip and the ongoing educational and professional journeys of the participants, reinforcing the value of the experience and its potential for long-term benefits. To motivate participants to continue exploring and learning about agriculture and related fields beyond the trip.
