Introduction

The Department of Economics organized a one-day workshop on "Employment Opportunities in Agriculture" with the objective of creating awareness among students about the diverse career prospects available in the agricultural sector. The workshop aimed to highlight modern agricultural practices, agribusiness ventures, government schemes, and skill-based opportunities that can create sustainable livelihoods for rural youth.

Objectives of the Workshop

- To understand the changing nature of employment in the agriculture sector.
- To introduce students to innovative and technology-driven agricultural practices.
- To create awareness about agribusiness, agro-processing, and value-addition opportunities.
- To provide information about government schemes supporting agricultural entrepreneurship.
- To motivate students to explore agriculture as a practical career option.

Resource Person

The session was conducted by Mr. S A. Honrao, Assistant Professor, Vittaldagi Patil College, Salgare and Dr. P. R. Mali, Assistant Professor, P. V. P. Mahavidyalaya, K. Mahankal, an expert in agricultural economics and rural development. The resource person explained various employment avenues related to farming, allied activities, and agri-entrepreneurship.

Workshop Highlights

- Overview of the current scenario of agricultural employment in India.
- Presentation on modern farming technologies such as precision farming, drip irrigation, and organic farming.
- Discussion on allied sectors like dairy farming, poultry, sericulture, fisheries, and horticulture.

- Introduction to agribusiness opportunities such as food processing, cold storage, seed production, and input supply.
- Information about government schemes like PM-Kisan, Agri-Clinics & Agri-Business Centres (ACABC), NABARD initiatives, and Start-up Agriculture programs.
- Interaction session where students clarified doubts regarding farming profitability, investment, and marketing.

Student Participation

A total of 42 students from B.A. and B.Com. classes participated enthusiastically. Students actively engaged in the discussion and shared their interest in taking up agriculture-based careers.

Outcomes of the Workshop

- 4) Students gained an understanding of multiple employment and entrepreneurial opportunities in agriculture.
- 5) Increased awareness of government support and financial assistance available for young Agri-entrepreneurs.
- 6) Encouraged students to adopt innovative ideas, scientific methods, and value-addition concepts in agriculture.
- 7) Enhanced motivation among rural students to explore agriculture as a sustainable livelihood.

Conclusion

The one-day workshop successfully achieved its objective of educating and motivating students regarding employment opportunities in the agriculture sector. The Department of Economics plans to conduct more such capacity-building programs to support student development and rural entrepreneurship.
