Report of the Activity

Title	Study tour to visit Chakote Industries, Nandni and Kopeshwar Temple, Khidrapur.
Day & Date	Wednesday, 24/12/2025
Organizer	Department of Political Science
Coordinator	Mr.S.N.Phakade
Participants	20 Students & 3 Teachers.
Background	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The study tour to Chakote Industries, Nandni and Kopeshwar Temple, Khidrapur was organized to provide MA Political Science students with firsthand exposure to the interaction between industry, society, religion, and governance.• The tour aimed to bridge the gap between classroom learning and real-life functioning of local industries, heritage management, and rural development, highlighting policy implementation at the grassroots level.• By visiting an industrial unit and historical-religious site, students were encouraged to observe how economic activities, cultural heritage, and public administration together contribute to regional growth and democracy at the local level.
Objective	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• To understand production processes, labor management, corporate social responsibility, and the contribution of Chakote Industries to regional employment and development.• To learn about the management of Kopeshwar Temple, tourism development, revenue generation, and the role of local governance bodies in heritage preservation.• To encourage students to interact with officials, workers, priests, and local citizens, thereby improving data collection, observation, analysis, and reporting skills relevant to political science.
Conclusion	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The study tour enabled students to gain practical insight into how industries, cultural institutions, and governance systems operate in real settings.• Students developed a deeper understanding of the relationship between economy, culture, politics, and public policy, which will benefit their academic and research pursuits.• The visit inspired students to pursue careers in public administration, policy analysis, heritage management, and industry-government relations, reinforcing the value of experiential learning.
