

Shikshan Parsarak Sanstha's
Padmabhsuhan Vasantrodada Patil Mahavidyalaya
Kavathe Mahankal

Department of Sociology

Guest Lecture Report
Sr. No.	Particulars	Details
1	Department	Department Culture and Sociology
2	Type of Activity	Guest Lecture
3	Date	15th November 2025
4	Topic	“Birsa Munda Jayanti”
5	Resource Person	Dr. Sarswati Andelwar (Scholar)
6	Venue	[College Seminar Hall / Classroom]
8	Participants	Students of Sociology Department and Faculty Members
9	Objective	To create awareness about the life, struggle, and contribution of Birsa Munda as a tribal freedom fighter and social reformer.
10	Introduction	The Department of Sociology organized a guest lecture on the occasion of Birsa Munda Jayanti to highlight the importance of tribal history and indigenous movements in India.
	Key Points Covered	Explained the life and background of Birsa Munda; discussed his role in the tribal uprising (Ulgulan) against British rule; highlighted his efforts toward social reform and unity among tribal communities; connected his ideas with present-day tribal issues like land rights and social justice.
	Student Participation	Students actively participated in the lecture and engaged in a question-answer session, showing keen interest in tribal movements and contemporary issues.
	Conclusion	The lecture was informative and inspiring, enriching students' knowledge about tribal history and social reforms.
	Outcome	Enhanced understanding of tribal contributions to Indian history; increased awareness about social justice and indigenous rights among students.

Head

Department of Sociology

