Title	Group Discussion Topic:- India ready for cashless economy?
Day &amp; Date:	Saturday 10/03/2023
Organizer	Department of Economics
Beneficiary:	Padmabhushan Vasantrodada Patil, Mahavidyalaya, Kavathe Mahankal
No. of Student Participated	36
Co- Ordinator	Mr. K.L. Sakat (HOD, Economics)
Participated:	BA Part III Students
Background:	Institutional orientation programs play a crucial role in ensuring that students have a smooth transition into their ancient educational practice's new academic environment. These programs only provide an opportunity for students to get acquainted with the institution but also familiarize them with the various skill Development of Students.
Objective:	Knowledge sharing Encourage participants to share their insights, experiences, and expertise related to the topic. Critical thinking Stimulate critical thinking by prompting participants to analyse, evaluate, and critique different perspectives and arguments. Problem-solving Collaboratively explore potential solutions or approaches to address challenges or issues related to the topic. Communication skills development: Provide participants with opportunities to practice and improve their communication skills, including listening, speaking, and presenting. The discussion on whether India is ready for a cashless economy is multifaceted.
Conclusion:	This may involve targeted interventions to enhance digital literacy, improve infrastructure, strengthen cybersecurity measures, and foster innovation in the fintech sector. Additionally, a balanced approach that combines digital solutions with the continued availability of cash as a fallback option may be necessary to accommodate diverse socioeconomic realities and ensure financial accessibility for all segments of society. Ultimately, achieving a cashless economy in India will require collaborative efforts from the government, financial institutions, technology providers, and civil society to overcome existing challenges and realize the full potential of digital payments in driving economic growth and financial inclusion.
