Report of the Activity

Title	Group Discussion:- Sacred Grove: Worship and Conservation
Day & Date	Wednesday, 7th January 2026.
Organizer	Department of Botany.
Background	The Department of Botany recently organized a Group Discussion on the topic of Sacred Grove: Worship and Conservation. This activity is to provide a platform for participants to show their research and knowledge in the field of Ethnobotany, Pharmacology, Anthropology and Pharmacognosy.
Objective	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• To help students understand the meaning, history and traditional background of sacred groves.• To discuss issues such as deforestation urbanization, encroachment and the decline of traditional belief systems.• To develop sense of responsibility among students towards nature conservation.• To encourage students to propose practical steps for protecting and preserving sacred groves.
Conclusion	The discussion highlighted that protecting sacred groves is essential for maintaining environmental balance. It also emphasized need for community participation, government support and student involvement in conservation efforts. Preserving sacred groves is not just about protecting forest but about respecting traditional knowledge and ensuring a sustainable future for coming generation.
