Report of One day Workshop on “Introduction to Scilab”

Title	One day workshop on “Introduction to Scilab”
Day and Date	Wednesday, 22/10/2025
Organizer	P. V. P. Mahavidyalaya, Kavathe Mahankal
Funding	P. V. P. Mahavidyalaya, Kavathe Mahankal
Co-ordinator	Mr. R. A. Dudhal (Asso. Prof)
Resource Person	1) Miss.Gouri N. More (Teacher ZP School, Jaitapur, Satara) 2) Dr. Pratiksha Demanna (Asst. Professor, Department of applied Science and humanities, Ashokrao Mane Group of Institutions, Vathar tarf Vadgaon.
Background	The math student should know about programming languages, they should have to focus on numerical and conceptual understanding rather than only algebraic manipulation.
Objective	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Students should quickly move from theory on the board to experiments on the computer• To develop conceptual understanding and to develop computational skills needed in modern academia and industry.
Conclusion	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The workshop on “Introduction to Scilab” successfully achieved its objectives by providing participants with foundational knowledge of the Scilab environment and hands-on experience in basic numerical and graphical operations.• Participants expressed keen interest in exploring Scilab further for coursework, laboratory exercises, and research projects, reflecting a positive shift towards the use of open-source computational tools.• The session thus contributed to enhancing computational skills and promoting a culture of technology-enabled learning within the institution.
