Padmabhushan Vasantrodada Patil Mahavidyalaya Kavathe Mahankal.

Subject: Request for Permission to Organize Poster Presentation and Research Paper Presentation Program

Respected Sir,

I trust this letter finds you in good health. I am writing on behalf of the Department of Sociology to seek your permission to organize a Poster Presentation and Research Paper Presentation Program within our department.

Event Details:

- Date: 06/06/2023
- Time: 10:00 AM
- Venue: Anand Bhavan

The purpose of this event is to provide a platform for students to showcase their research work, engage in scholarly discussions, and foster a culture of academic inquiry within the department. We believe that such activities contribute significantly to the intellectual growth of our students and enhance the academic atmosphere of our institution.

The Poster Presentation and Research Paper Presentation Program will feature contributions from students who have researched various sociological topics. The event aims to promote a spirit of inquiry, critical thinking, and research skills among our students.

We assure you that all necessary arrangements will be made to ensure the smooth conduct of the program, and appropriate measures will be taken to adhere to any guidelines or protocols set forth by the institution.

We kindly request your approval and support for the successful organization of this program. We believe that this initiative will not only enhance the academic experience of our students but also contribute to the overall academic reputation of our institution.

Thank you for considering our request. We look forward to your positive response.

Sincerely,

Permission granted

Department of Sociology
Report on
Poster Presentation and Research Paper Presentation Program

10/06/2022

Introduction:

The Department of Sociology, successfully organized a Poster Presentation and Research Paper Presentation Program on 06/06/2022, aimed to provide a platform for students to showcase their research endeavours, stimulate scholarly discussions, and cultivate a culture of academic inquiry within the department.

Event Overview:

The program commenced at 10:00 AM and featured a diverse array of poster presentations and research paper discussions from students across different academic levels. The purpose was to encourage students to delve into sociological research, present their findings, and engage in meaningful conversations with peers and faculty members.

Poster Presentation:

The poster presentation segment showcased visually engaging displays that encapsulated the essence of various research projects. Each poster was a condensed representation of the research, with students standing by to explain their work and answer questions from attendees. The topics covered a wide spectrum of sociological issues, reflecting the department's commitment to exploring diverse aspects of society.

Research Paper Presentation:

Following the poster session, the program transitioned into research paper presentations. Students delivered concise yet comprehensive overviews of their research, highlighting key findings, methodologies, and the significance of their work. This segment provided a more in-depth understanding of the students' academic contributions and allowed for critical discussions.

Conclusion:

The Poster Presentation and Research Paper Presentation Program proved to be a resounding success, achieving its objectives of promoting research culture, enhancing communication skills, and encouraging collaborative learning within the Department of Sociology. The event showcased the diverse talents and interests of our students, contributing to the overall academic enrichment of our institution.

Future Initiatives:

The Department of Sociology remains committed to organizing similar events in the future, fostering a dynamic and intellectually stimulating environment for our students.
