Background	To enhance student engagement and practical understanding, the Department of Commerce organized a Study Trip to Ratnagiri on the theme "Tourism and Business Management." The activity was designed to bridge classroom learning with real-world exposure to the tourism industry and local business practices. Through this experiential learning initiative, students gained insights into tourism operations, hospitality management, and regional business models. The visit also fostered essential skills such as discipline, teamwork, time management, decision-making, and goal-setting through observation, interaction, and reflective learning.
Objective	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• To expose students to real-world tourism operations and hospitality services.• To understand the functioning of tourism management, including planning, marketing, and customer service• To learn basic entrepreneurial practices in the tourism and local business sector.• To link theoretical concepts of commerce with practical experiences in tourism and business management.
Conclusion	The Two days Study Trip to Ratnagiri – "Tourism and Business Management" , attended by 14 M.Com students, 38 students, and 3 faculty members , provided valuable practical exposure and enhanced students' understanding of real-world tourism and business operations. It successfully bridged the gap between theory and practice and motivated students to develop entrepreneurial, managerial, and professional skills in the tourism sector.
