Title	Essay Writing and Presentation. “The Challenges of Democracy”.
Day & Date	Saturday, 26 November 2022
Organizer	Padmabhushan Vasantrodada Patil Mahavidyalaya, Kavathe Mahankal. The Department of Political Science
Funding	-
Co-ordinator	Mr. N. S. Waghmare Co-ordinator, Department of Political Science.
Background	Democracy, as a political system, has faced and continues to face numerous challenges globally. To gain a deeper understanding of these challenges, this experiential learning essay explores the democratic thoughts of prominent figures like Ambedkar, Gandhi, and Nehru. These three figures played pivotal roles in shaping India's democratic framework and their ideologies continue to influence democratic discourse.
Objective	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Analyzing Democratic Thoughts: Delving into the writings and speeches of Ambedkar, Gandhi, and Nehru to comprehend their distinct democratic philosophies.• Identifying Challenges: Investigating contemporary challenges faced by democracies globally, with a specific focus on how these align or conflict with the democratic thoughts of the aforementioned leaders.• Comparative Analysis: Conducting a comparative analysis of Ambedkar, Gandhi, and Nehru's democratic ideals to understand the nuances and areas of convergence or divergence.• Relevance to Contemporary Issues: Examining how the democratic thoughts of these leaders resonate with and address current challenges, offering insights for modern democratic governance.
Conclusion	This experiential learning essay provides a comprehensive exploration of the challenges faced by democracies, drawing insights from the democratic thoughts of Ambedkar, Gandhi, and Nehru. By understanding the rich democratic philosophies of these influential figures, the essay aims to contribute to ongoing discussions on strengthening democratic governance and addressing contemporary challenges. The study underscores the importance of aligning democratic principles with evolving societal needs while maintaining the core values advocated by these leaders.

Title	Guest Lecture on "Dr. B.R. Ambedkar's Educational and Social Thoughts".
Day & Date	14 th April 2022
Organizer	Department of Political Science and Department of Sociology
Funding	-
Chief Guest	Mr.Nishikant Waghmare, Mr. Satish Patil
No. Participant	25
Background	Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, the architect of the Indian Constitution, was not only a legal luminary but also a prominent social reformer and an advocate for education. Born into a marginalized community, he faced numerous challenges and discrimination, which fueled his lifelong commitment to fighting for social justice and equality. Ambedkar's thoughts on education and society remain profoundly influential, shaping not only Indian society but also inspiring movements for justice and equality worldwide. This guest lecture aims to delve into Dr. Ambedkar's educational philosophy and his visionary ideas on social transformation.
Objective	<ul style="list-style-type: none">❖ To explore the educational philosophy of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar and its relevance in contemporary times.❖ To examine the intersectionality of education and social reform as envisioned by Dr. Ambedkar.❖ To discuss the contemporary challenges to realizing Dr. Ambedkar's vision of an inclusive and egalitarian society and the strategies to address them.❖ To inspire students and participants to engage critically with Dr. Ambedkar's ideas and apply them in their academic pursuits and social activism.
Conclusion	Dr. B.R. Ambedkar's educational and social thoughts continue to serve as a guiding light for transformative change. His emphasis on education as a tool for emancipation and his relentless struggle against social injustices remain highly relevant in today's world. As we reflect on his ideas, let us not only admire his intellectual prowess but also imbibe the spirit of activism and social responsibility that defined his life's work. By embracing Dr. Ambedkar's vision and striving for an inclusive and just society, we can honor his legacy and contribute to building a better world for future generations.
