Introduction

On March 4, 2023, the Department of Sociology organized a movie screening of the critically acclaimed film "Queen" as part of its Experiential Learning Program. The event aimed to provide students with an engaging and thought-provoking learning experience outside the traditional classroom setting. The screening was followed by a discussion session, allowing students to explore and analyze the sociological themes presented in the film.

Objectives

The primary objectives of the program were to:

- Enhance students' understanding of sociological concepts through visual media.
- Encourage critical thinking and discussion on gender roles, individual freedom, and cultural norms.
- Provide a platform for students to relate theoretical knowledge to real-life scenarios depicted in the film.

Program Agenda

1. Introduction (8:00 AM):

- Welcome address by Dr. Surendranath Babar, Head of the Sociology Department.
- Brief overview of the film's relevance to sociological studies.

2. Movie Screening (8:30 PM - 11:00 AM):

- Screening of the film "Queen," directed by Vikas Bahl.

3. Discussion Session (11:10 AM- 11:45 AM):

- Moderated by Prof. Rajesh Mehta, Associate Professor of Sociology.

- Open floor discussion with students sharing their perspectives.

Summary of the Film "Queen"

"Queen" is a 2013 Bollywood film that tells the story of Rani Mehra, a young woman from Delhi who embarks on a solo honeymoon trip to Europe after her wedding is called off. The film explores themes of self-discovery, independence, and cultural contrasts, making it an excellent case study for sociological analysis.

Key Discussion Points

The discussion session highlighted several sociological themes:

- Gender Roles and Empowerment: Students discussed how Rani's journey challenges traditional gender roles and showcases her transformation into an empowered individual.
- Cultural Identity and Globalization: The film's portrayal of Rani's interactions with people from different cultures provided a basis for examining cultural identity and the impacts of globalization.
- Individual Freedom and Self-Discovery: Rani's experiences in Europe were analyzed in terms of personal freedom and the quest for self-discovery.

Conclusion

The movie screening of "Queen" as part of the Experiential Learning Program was a resounding success. It not only enhanced students' understanding of sociological theories especially Gender Role Crisis but also encouraged them to think critically about real-world issues. The Department of Sociology plans to organise similar events in the future to continue enriching the educational experience of its students.

Report of the Activity

On the occasion of Sardar Vallabhabhai Patel Jayanti, the Political Science Department organized a film screening of the movie 'Lage Raho Munnabhai' for the students. This event was part of the experiential learning methodology implemented by the department. Prof. Surendranath Babar, Head of the Department of Sociology, shared his views on this occasion. Furthermore, the movie screening provided an opportunity for students to actively participate and engage in departmental activities.

The students thoroughly enjoyed the movie screening and readily grasped the concept of Gandhigiri, a neologism in India that represents the principles of Gandhism, including Satyagraha and Ahimsa, in contemporary terms. The term gained popularity due to its portrayal in the 2006 Hindi film, 'Lage Raho Munna Bhai'.

The program was introduced by Mr. Phakade S. N., from the Department of Political Science, and technical arrangements and organizational assistance were provided by the chief guest, Mr. Babar S. A., Mr. Waghmare N. S., and Mr. Shinde N. P. The event concluded with students sharing their viewpoints on the film.

It came to notice that Shivaji University Kolhapur has prescribed R. K. Narayan's novel 'The Guide' for the curricular of B. A. III Paper No. XV and students are curious about the Vijay Anand's directed adapted movie version where Mr Dev Anand and Wahida Rehman played role of the guide Raju and Rozie accordingly. In addition, it became important for departmental students to understand the difference between form 'novella' and 'movie' through literary lenses. Moreover, movie screening also enables opportunity for students to participate and involve in the departmental activities.

However, students enjoyed the movie screening and easily differentiate the difference between novel and movie version of the novel 'The Guide'. The objective of the movie screening was to enable the student participation in Departmental activities, to motivate the critical thinking ability, to highlight the importance of literature in culturally instable society and create interest in Language and Literature.

Mr. Kamble S. S., Head, Department of English has highlighted the importance of literature and differentiated the adaptation and the original text. In addition, He encouraged the students to participate in various activities organized by English Literary Association. Mr. Shinde N. P., Mr. Gadhire S. S., and Miss. Waghmare R. G. made technical arrangements. Mr. Shinde R. R., Miss. Kamble R. D. assisted to organize this movie screening and Miss. Savanurkar A. DEPARTMENT OF GEOGRAPHY
Report of the Movie Screening Programme

Our recent movie screening event, featuring the acclaimed documentary series "Human Planet" (2011), was a resounding success, providing an enriching experience for the 20 students, including both boys and girls, who attended this special geography-focused gathering. The event aimed to delve into the intricate relationship between human societies and their geographical environments, as depicted in the visually stunning and thought-provoking episodes of "Human Planet."

The documentary series captivated the audience with its breathtaking cinematography, showcasing the remarkable ways in which different cultures around the world adapt and thrive in diverse geographical landscapes. From the Arctic Circle to the depths of the rainforest, "Human Planet" vividly illustrated the profound influence of geography on the daily lives, traditions, and survival strategies of communities worldwide. Attendees were transported on a global journey, gaining insights into the resilience and resourcefulness of humanity in the face of geographical challenges.

The screening was followed by an engaging discussion session, allowing the students to reflect on the geographical themes presented in the documentary. The special focus on geography sparked lively conversations, and students shared their perspectives on the impact of geography on cultural practices, societal structures, and environmental sustainability. The event not only fostered a deeper understanding of geography but also encouraged a sense of global awareness and cultural appreciation among the participants. Overall, the movie screening of "Human Planet" served as a powerful medium to convey geographical concepts and inspire a new generation of students to explore the intricate connections between humanity and the world we inhabit.
