Title	'Street Play:Female Foeticide'
Day &amp; Date	18/10/2022
Organizer	NSS No of Part : 25
Co-ordinator	Dr Netaji Pol, Sanjay Patil
Background	On October 18, 2022, the National Service Scheme (NSS) organized a street play on the theme of "Female Foeticide" at Vithurayachiwadi Village. The purpose of the street play was to raise awareness about the detrimental consequences of female foeticide and advocate for gender equality and women's rights. The performance aimed to educate and engage community members in addressing this pressing social issue.
Objective	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- To raise awareness about the practice of female foeticide and its impact on society.</li><li>- To promote gender equality and challenge discriminatory attitudes towards women and girls.</li><li>- To encourage community dialogue and collective action against gender-based violence and discrimination.</li></ul>
Conclusion/ Outcomes	The street play on "Female Foeticide" organized by NSS volunteers at Vithurayachiwadi Village on October 18, 2022, served as a powerful medium for advocacy and social change. By leveraging the arts to convey a powerful message, the performance ignited conversations, raised awareness, and inspired action towards building a more inclusive and equitable society where every individual is valued and respected, regardless of gender.

Title	'Reading Skills Workshop'
Day &amp; Date	26/07/2023
Organizer	NSS No of Part : 32
Co-ordinator	Prof Mohan Londhe, Surendranath Babar
Background	On July 26, 2023, a collaborative effort between the National Service Scheme (NSS) and the Department of Marathi led to the organization of a Reading Skills Workshop at Primary School Thabadewadi. The workshop aimed to enhance reading proficiency among students and promote the importance of literacy in the development of language skills.
Objective	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- To improve reading comprehension and fluency among students.</li><li>- To foster a love for reading and appreciation for Marathi literature.</li><li>- To provide students with practical strategies and techniques to enhance their reading skills.</li></ul>
Conclusion/ Outcomes	The Reading Skills Workshop jointly organized by NSS and the Department of Marathi at Primary School Thabadewadi on July 26, 2023, emerged as a fruitful endeavor in promoting literacy and language skills development among students. Through targeted interventions and engaging activities, the workshop succeeded in equipping students with essential reading skills while fostering a deeper appreciation for Marathi literature. Such collaborative initiatives underscore the importance of partnerships in advancing educational objectives and nurturing a generation of lifelong learners.

Day &amp; Date	25/07/2023
Organizer	NSS No of Part : 25
Co-ordinator	Dr Netaji Pol, Surendranath Babar
Background	On July 25, 2023, the National Service Scheme (NSS) conducted a Reading Awareness Campaign at Thabadewadi Village with the aim of promoting literacy, fostering a reading culture, and enhancing educational opportunities among the residents. The campaign sought to ignite a passion for reading and empower individuals with knowledge and information through access to books and educational resources.
Objective	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- To promote the importance of literacy and reading habits for personal and community development.</li><li>- To encourage children, youth, and adults to engage in reading as a means of intellectual enrichment and lifelong learning.</li><li>- To facilitate access to books and educational materials, especially in underserved areas.</li></ul>
Conclusion	The Reading Awareness Campaign organized by NSS at Thabadewadi Village on July 25, 2023, emerged as a commendable initiative in promoting literacy, education, and intellectual enrichment among the villagers. By instilling a love for reading and providing access to books and educational materials, the campaign contributed towards empowering individuals and fostering a culture of lifelong learning. Such endeavors exemplify the transformative impact of grassroots initiatives in advancing educational objectives and promoting social development.

Title	'Digital Literacy Survey'
Day &amp; Date	06/09/2023
Organizer	NSS      No of Post : 25
Co-ordinator	Surendranath Babar, Dr Netaji Pol
Background	On September 5, 2023, the National Service Scheme (NSS) conducted a Digital Literacy Survey at Thabadewadi Village with the aim of assessing the level of digital literacy and access to technology among the residents. The survey was conducted to understand the community's familiarity with digital tools and platforms and to identify opportunities for promoting digital literacy and inclusion.
Objective	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- To evaluate the level of digital literacy among residents of Thabadewadi Village.</li><li>- To assess access to digital devices, internet connectivity, and utilization of digital resources.</li><li>- To identify barriers to digital literacy and opportunities for intervention to bridge the digital divide.</li></ul>
Conclusion/ Outcomes	The Digital Literacy Survey conducted by NSS at Thabadewadi Village on September 5, 2023, served as a crucial initiative in assessing the community's readiness to embrace digital technologies. By gathering data on digital literacy levels and access to technology, the survey laid the foundation for future interventions aimed at bridging the digital divide and promoting digital inclusion. Such endeavors underscore the commitment of NSS towards empowering communities through education and technology.

Title	'Crematory and Superstitions: A Lecture'
Day &amp; Date	03/10/2023
Organizer	NSS      No of Part : 32
Speaker	Balasaheb Suryawanshi
Co-ordinator	Surendranath Babar, Dr Netaji Pol
Background	On October 3, 2023, the National Service Scheme (NSS) organized a lecture titled "Crematory and Superstitions" at the Thabadewadi Crematory Place. The lecture aimed to address prevalent superstitions surrounding cremation practices and promote rational thinking and scientific understanding among community members. It provided an opportunity to dispel myths and misconceptions associated with cremation and fostered a culture of informed decision-making.
Objective	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- To educate community members about the scientific and cultural aspects of cremation.</li><li>- To debunk myths and superstitions related to cremation practices.</li><li>- To promote rational thinking and encourage critical analysis of traditional beliefs.</li></ul>
Conclusion/ Outcomes	The lecture on "Crematory and Superstitions" organized by NSS at the Thabadewadi Crematory Place on October 3, 2023, served as a platform for education and enlightenment. By addressing prevalent superstitions surrounding cremation practices, the lecture contributed to promoting rational thinking and fostering a more informed and enlightened community. Such initiatives are essential for dispelling myths and promoting a culture of scientific understanding and critical inquiry.

Title	Celebrating World Book Day
Day &amp; Date	23/04/2024
Organizer	NSS and Department of English No of Part : 15
Co-ordinator	Surendranath Babar, Nitish Shinde
Background	On the 23rd of April 2024 the National Service Scheme (NSS) in collaboration with the Department of English organized a series of events to celebrate World Book Day. This initiative aimed to foster a love for reading among children and to highlight the importance of books in education and personal growth. The event involved students from both organizations reading books to small gatherings of kids in various localities.
Objective	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- To promote literacy and the joy of reading among young children.</li><li>- To encourage community involvement and volunteerism among students.</li><li>- To celebrate World Book Day by sharing stories and knowledge.</li></ul>
Conclusion/ Outcomes	The World Book Day celebration organized by the National Service Scheme and the Department of English was a resounding success. It not only brought joy and knowledge to the children but also highlighted the vital role of reading in early education. By fostering a love for books, this event has sown the seeds for a more literate and enlightened future generation.

YouTube Link	https://youtu.be/OaLI6-f-TD8?si=9ObILKK63GkgMixV
Background	In May 2024, the National Service Scheme (NSS) initiated a creative project titled "Reading for Community: Preparing Audio Book on YouTube." This program involved volunteers recording an audiobook version of "Shivaji Kon Hota," a well-known Marathi book that narrates the life and legacy of the great Maratha warrior, Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj. The recorded audiobook was then uploaded to YouTube, making it accessible to a broader audience, especially those with visual impairments and reading difficulties.
Objective	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- To promote literacy and the love of reading through digital platforms.</li> <li>- To make literature accessible to people with visual impairments and other reading challenges.</li> <li>- To celebrate and spread knowledge about the life of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj.</li> </ul>
Conclusion/ Outcomes	The "Reading for Community: Preparing Audio Book on YouTube" project was a resounding success, fulfilling its goal of making literature accessible to a wider audience. By recording and sharing "Shivaji Kon Hota," the NSS volunteers not only promoted the legacy of Shivaji Maharaj but also demonstrated the power of technology in bridging accessibility gaps. This initiative has set a precedent for future projects aimed at combining community service with digital innovation.

Report on NCC Extension Activity at Adarsh Vidyamandir, Nangole

The NCC unit of Padmabhushan Vasantodada Patil Mahavidyalaya, Kavathe Mahankal, recently conducted an extension activity with the active participation of its dedicated cadets. As part of this initiative, a group of six cadets engaged in various activities aimed at promoting the National Cadet Corps (NCC) and its benefits. One notable activity was a lecture on career opportunities in NCC, held at Adarsh Vidyamandir, Nangole, Taluka - Kavathe Mahankal, District - Sangli.

During the lecture, Cadet Rohan Sutar provided comprehensive information about the NCC, highlighting its importance and the numerous benefits it offers to students. He emphasized how the NCC can pave the way for a successful career in Défense services and other leadership roles. His insightful presentation captivated the audience, showcasing the transformative impact of NCC training on personal and professional development.

In addition to Rohan Sutar's presentation, Cadet Satish Ghatage, Sachin Khot, Om Jadhav and Harshad Patil contributed by sharing valuable information about NCC camps and the rich cultural experiences they offer. Their detailed accounts of the various activities and learning opportunities available through these camps inspired the students at Adarsh Vidyamandir. The interactive session concluded with a lively Q&A segment, where the cadet addressed questions and encouraged students to consider joining the NCC to develop their skills and pursue fulfilling careers.
