Title	'Blood Donation Campaign'
Day & Date	15/09/2022
Organizer	NSS No of Donors : 85
Co-ordinator	Prof Sanjay Patil, Prof Netaji Pol
Background	On September 15, 2022, the National Service Scheme (NSS) organized a commendable Blood Donation Campaign as part of its ongoing commitment to community welfare. The campaign aimed to address the constant need for blood and raise awareness about the life-saving impact of voluntary blood donation.
Objective	The primary objective of the Blood Donation Campaign was to encourage voluntary blood donation, increase the blood supply for medical emergencies, and foster a sense of social responsibility among the community members.
Conclusion	The Blood Donation Campaign organized by NSS on 15/09/2022 emerged as a resounding success, contributing significantly to the local blood supply and fostering a culture of voluntary blood donation within the community. The active participation of NSS volunteers and the community at large highlighted the collective responsibility towards ensuring a stable and accessible blood supply. The campaign not only addressed the immediate need for blood but also played a crucial role in dispelling misconceptions and creating awareness about the life-saving impact of voluntary blood donation. NSS's continued efforts in organizing such campaigns contribute to building a healthier and more resilient community.

Title	'Cleaning Drive'
Day & Date	05/10/2022
Organizer	NSS No of Part : 25
Co-ordinator	Sanjay Patil, Dr Netaji Pol
Background	On October 5, 2022, the National Service Scheme (NSS) initiated a cleaning drive campaign at Vithurayachi Wadi Village. The campaign aimed to address the issue of environmental cleanliness, promote community involvement in sanitation efforts, and raise awareness about the importance of maintaining a clean and hygienic environment.
Objective	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- To mobilize NSS volunteers and community members to participate in a collective effort to clean and beautify the village.- To promote the adoption of responsible waste management practices and encourage the proper disposal of waste.- To foster a sense of ownership and pride among residents in maintaining the cleanliness and hygiene of their surroundings.
Conclusion/ Outcomes	The cleaning drive campaign initiated by NSS at Vithurayachi Wadi Village on October 5, 2022, exemplified the spirit of community service and environmental responsibility. By mobilizing volunteers and community members to take action against littering and pollution, the campaign contributed to creating a cleaner and more livable village environment. Such initiatives underscore the importance of collective efforts in addressing environmental challenges and promoting sustainable development.

Title	'Street Play:Female Foeticide'
Day & Date	18/10/2022
Organizer	NSS No of Part : 25
Co-ordinator	Dr Netaji Pol, Sanjay Patil
Background	On October 18, 2022, the National Service Scheme (NSS) organized a street play on the theme of "Female Foeticide" at Vithurayachiwadi Village. The purpose of the street play was to raise awareness about the detrimental consequences of female foeticide and advocate for gender equality and women's rights. The performance aimed to educate and engage community members in addressing this pressing social issue.
Objective	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- To raise awareness about the practice of female foeticide and its impact on society.- To promote gender equality and challenge discriminatory attitudes towards women and girls.- To encourage community dialogue and collective action against gender-based violence and discrimination.
Conclusion/ Outcomes	The street play on "Female Foeticide" organized by NSS volunteers at Vithurayachiwadi Village on October 18, 2022, served as a powerful medium for advocacy and social change. By leveraging the arts to convey a powerful message, the performance ignited conversations, raised awareness, and inspired action towards building a more inclusive and equitable society where every individual is valued and respected, regardless of gender.

Title	“Bunding on Creeks”
Day & Date	21/12/2022
Organizer	NSS No of Part : 18
Co-ordinator	Sanjay Patil, Netaji Pol
Background	On December 21, 2022, the National Service Scheme (NSS) organized a bunding activity on creeks for water conservation at Vithurayachiwadi. The objective of the initiative was to harness rainwater runoff by constructing bunds along creeks, thereby replenishing groundwater resources, preventing soil erosion, and promoting sustainable water management practices.
Objective	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- To conserve rainwater and enhance groundwater recharge by constructing bunds along creeks.- To mitigate soil erosion and protect agricultural land and natural habitats.- To raise awareness about the importance of water conservation and community participation in sustainable water management initiatives.
Conclusion/ Outcomes	The bunding activity organized by NSS at Vithurayachiwadi on December 21, 2022, exemplified the spirit of community-led environmental conservation and water stewardship. By harnessing rainwater runoff through the construction of bunds along creeks, the initiative promoted sustainable water management practices and contributed to the resilience of local ecosystems and livelihoods. Such collaborative efforts underscore the importance of community participation in addressing water scarcity and building climate resilience.

Title	'Voter Survey'
Day & Date	25/01/2023 No of Post : 25
Organizer	NSS and and Electoral Literacy Club
Co-ordinator	Prof Netaji Pol, Mr Nishikant Waghmare
Background	On January 25, 2023, the National Service Scheme (NSS) and the Electoral Literacy Club collaborated to conduct a comprehensive voter survey aimed at assessing the awareness, participation, and opinions of voters in the community. The survey sought to gather valuable insights to enhance electoral literacy and promote informed decision-making among citizens.
Objective	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- To gauge the level of awareness among voters regarding electoral processes, rights, and responsibilities.- To assess voter participation rates and identify potential barriers to voting.- To gather feedback and opinions from voters on electoral reforms, issues of concern, and areas for improvement.
Conclusion/ Outcomes	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- The survey generated valuable insights into the level of electoral literacy and voter engagement within the community.- Identified areas of concern, such as low voter registration rates among certain demographics, lack of awareness about electoral candidates and issues, and challenges faced by marginalized groups in accessing polling stations.- Feedback and opinions gathered from voters will inform future initiatives aimed at enhancing electoral education, improving voter turnout, and strengthening democratic processes.

Title	'Guest Lecture on Voting Awareness'
Day & Date	11/03/2023 No of Part : 25
Organizer	NSS and and Electoral Literacy Club
Guest Speaker	Mrs Archana Kapase, Tehsildar Kavathe Mahankal
Co-ordinator	Prof Netaji Pol, Mr Nishikant Waghmare
Background	On March 11, 2023, the National Service Scheme (NSS) and Electoral Literacy Club organized an enlightening guest lecture on voter awareness. The event aimed to inform and inspire NSS volunteers and the wider community about the significance of participating in the democratic process, understanding voting rights, and fostering a sense of civic responsibility.
Objective	The primary objective of the Voter Awareness Guest Lecture was to enhance voter awareness, educate participants about the importance of voting, and encourage active participation in the democratic system. The lecture sought to address misconceptions, provide information on electoral processes, and motivate individuals to exercise their right to vote.
Conclusion/ Outcomes	The Voter Awareness Guest Lecture organized by NSS on March 11, 2023, proved to be a valuable platform for disseminating knowledge and fostering a deeper understanding of the democratic process. The insightful presentation and interactive discussions contributed to dispelling myths and enhancing voter awareness among participants. NSS continues to play a pivotal role in civic education, ensuring that individuals are well-informed and empowered to actively participate in the democratic governance of the country. The success of this event underscores the importance of ongoing efforts to promote voter awareness within communities.

Title	'Brook Cleaning Campaign'
Day & Date	29/03/2023
Organizer	NSS No of part : 43
Co-ordinator	Prof Sanjay Patil, Prof Netaji Pol
Background	The National Service Scheme (NSS) orchestrated a significant environmental initiative, the Brook Cleaning Campaign, on March 29, 2023. The campaign aimed to address environmental concerns related to water bodies, specifically focusing on cleaning and preserving the local brook while fostering community engagement in environmental conservation efforts.
Objective	The primary objective of the Brook Cleaning Campaign was to raise awareness about the importance of maintaining clean water bodies and actively involve the community in cleaning and preserving the local brook. The campaign sought to underscore the significance of preserving natural habitats and preventing pollution.
Conclusion/ Outcomes	The Brook Cleaning Campaign organized by NSS on March 29, 2023, emerged as a testament to collective environmental responsibility and community action. The active participation of NSS volunteers and community members showcased the power of collaborative efforts in addressing environmental challenges. The campaign not only cleansed the brook but also instilled a sense of responsibility and awareness among participants regarding the importance of preserving natural water bodies. Ongoing collaborations with local authorities will be pivotal in maintaining the positive impact of this campaign and fostering a sustainable environment for future generations.
