Report on NCC Extension Activity at Adarsh Vidyamandir, Nangole

The NCC unit of Padmabhushan Vasantrodada Patil Mahavidyalaya, Kavathe Mahankal, recently conducted an extension activity with the active participation of its dedicated cadets. As part of this initiative, a group of six cadets engaged in various activities aimed at promoting the National Cadet Corps (NCC) and its benefits. One notable activity was a lecture on career opportunities in NCC, held at Adarsh Vidyamandir, Nangole, Taluka - Kavathe Mahankal, District - Sangli.

During the lecture, Cadet Rohan Sutar provided comprehensive information about the NCC, highlighting its importance and the numerous benefits it offers to students. He emphasized how the NCC can pave the way for a successful career in Défense services and other leadership roles. His insightful presentation captivated the audience, showcasing the transformative impact of NCC training on personal and professional development.

In addition to Rohan Sutar's presentation, Cadet Satish Ghatage, Sachin Khot, Om Jadhav and Harshad Patil contributed by sharing valuable information about NCC camps and the rich cultural experiences they offer. Their detailed accounts of the various activities and learning opportunities available through these camps inspired the students at Adarsh Vidyamandir. The interactive session concluded with a lively Q&A segment, where the cadet addressed questions and encouraged students to consider joining the NCC to develop their skills and pursue fulfilling careers.
