Background	On April 9, 2024, the National Service Scheme (NSS) and Electoral Literacy Club of Padmabhushan Vasantrodada Patil Mahavidyalaya organized a significant event titled "RAJKIY KATTA: A Political Debate." The event aimed to foster political awareness and engagement among the students and the wider community.
Objective	The primary objective of the debate was to provide a platform for students and volunteers to engage in constructive discussions on pertinent political issues facing the nation. By streaming the event on the college's YouTube channel, the organizers aimed to reach a broader audience and promote civic education and participation.
Conclusion/ Outcomes	"RAJKIY KATTA: A Political Debate" served as a platform for fostering critical thinking, civic engagement, and informed decision-making among the youth. By harnessing the power of digital media, the event succeeded in raising awareness about pressing political issues and empowering individuals to become active participants in the democratic process.
