Title	Celebrating World Book Day
Day & Date	23/04/2024
Organizer	NSS and Department of English No of Part : 15
Co-ordinator	Surendranath Babar, Nitish Shinde
Background	On the 23rd of April 2024 the National Service Scheme (NSS) in collaboration with the Department of English organized a series of events to celebrate World Book Day. This initiative aimed to foster a love for reading among children and to highlight the importance of books in education and personal growth. The event involved students from both organizations reading books to small gatherings of kids in various localities.
Objective	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- To promote literacy and the joy of reading among young children.- To encourage community involvement and volunteerism among students.- To celebrate World Book Day by sharing stories and knowledge.
Conclusion/ Outcomes	The World Book Day celebration organized by the National Service Scheme and the Department of English was a resounding success. It not only brought joy and knowledge to the children but also highlighted the vital role of reading in early education. By fostering a love for books, this event has sown the seeds for a more literate and enlightened future generation.
